

OPEN CALL FOR LOCAL ARTISTS' TENT, ARTS IN THE MIDDLE FINE ARTS FESTIVAL June 1-2, 2024

Fine artists from the Middle Peninsula & Northern Neck are invited to apply to the Arts in the Middle Fine Arts Show – June 3 & 4 – for space in the Local Artist Tent.

Dear Local Artists!

Applications are open for Arts in the Middle's Local Artist Tent for 2024.

Arts in the Middle, held just outside Urbanna, is consistently rated one of the best art shows in eastern Virginia, and a universal favorite among vendors. Every year local artists are invited to exhibit in a shared tent where their work is highlighted.

Each local artist receives space for at least 5 pieces, and may put out a browse bin for prints. Three dimensional artists such as potters and jewelers will have access to tables. There are several awards, including Best Local Artist, along with a catered reception Saturday night. A hanging fee of $40 helps defray the cost of the tent.

The Local Artist Tent is a large pavilion directly adjacent to the entrance, a prime location for visibility and sales.

For artists on the Middle Peninsula or Northern Neck, it's a great opportunity to sell work at a high-profile show. It's also a chance to connect with a thriving network of other local artists and gallerists. And for artists who haven't done an outdoor show before, the local tent is an ideal way to test the waters.

Applications are open until March 31st. Applicants are juried, the results of which will be made known by April 15th.

We hope to see you at Arts in the Middle!

A hanging fee of $40 is payable upon acceptance to the show and must be paid by May 15 to AIM, PO Box 982, Urbanna, VA 23175. Please put "Local Artist Fee" in the byline if paying by check, and a note attached if paying by cash. Artists retain all proceeds of their sales and must cover their own state sales tax (for more information visit www.tax.virginia.gov)

Artists in the Local Artist Tent may hang up to 5 original pieces of fine art and/or 5 pieces of original three-dimensional art, or what fits on two 2x6' hanging walls/ one 6' table. You will be given a designated spot in the gallery for your work, with tables available for jewelry, pottery, and three-dimensional works. (Additional inventory will be allowed in browse bins, and replacements are allowed for sold items.)

Artists will hang and take down their work during the allotted time before and after the festival hours. They must also be present (or work collaboratively with other showing artists) during the show to discuss their work and make their own sales. AIM Planning Team members and volunteers will not be available to show or sell work.

Work must be original and made by the applicant. No kits, pre-made items, mass produced, re-sale or commercial pieces will be allowed. Work must meet the standards of fine art; craft items (such as coasters, bottle openers, etc) are not allowed.

In order for our jurors to review your work, images must be included with application of work which represent the style of your work and is similar to that you wish to include in the Local Artist Gallery. Photos and cd's will be accepted for the jury process and may be submitted by email to artsinthemiddlefestival@gmail.com or the address on the application form.
